

B. M. S. COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
Autonomous
NAAC Accreditation 'A' Grade

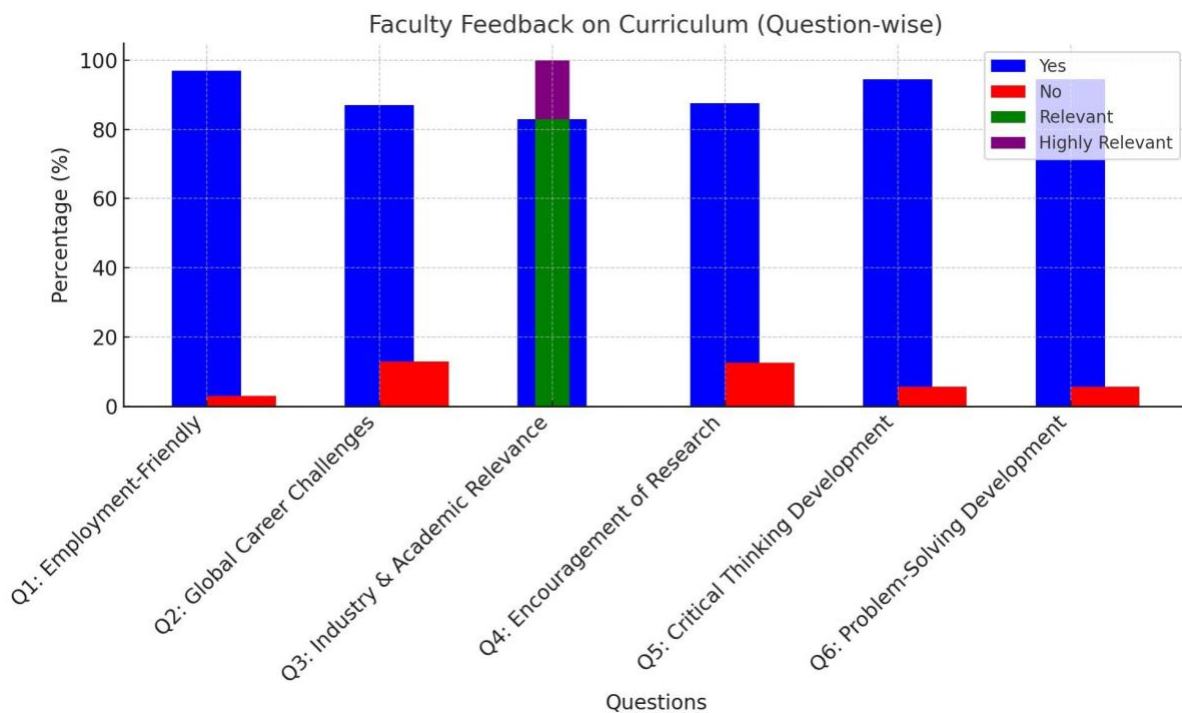

Consolidated Feedback on Curriculum:

- Strong Positive Response across All Groups: Alumni, faculty, and students overwhelmingly (80-90%) reported that the curriculum is employment-friendly, effectively preparing students for the job market.
- Global Career Readiness: There was broad consensus (80-90%) across all groups that the curriculum addresses global career challenges and prepares students for international opportunities.
- Relevance to Industry and Academia: 80-90% of respondents across alumni, faculty, and students affirmed that the curriculum is highly relevant to current industry standards and academic advancements.
- Research Encouragement: A significant portion of all groups (80-90%) believes the curriculum fosters a strong research-oriented mind-set among students.
- Promotion of Critical Thinking and Problem-Solving: The curriculum is widely regarded as effectively encouraging critical thinking and problem-solving skills, crucial for student development in both academic and professional spheres.

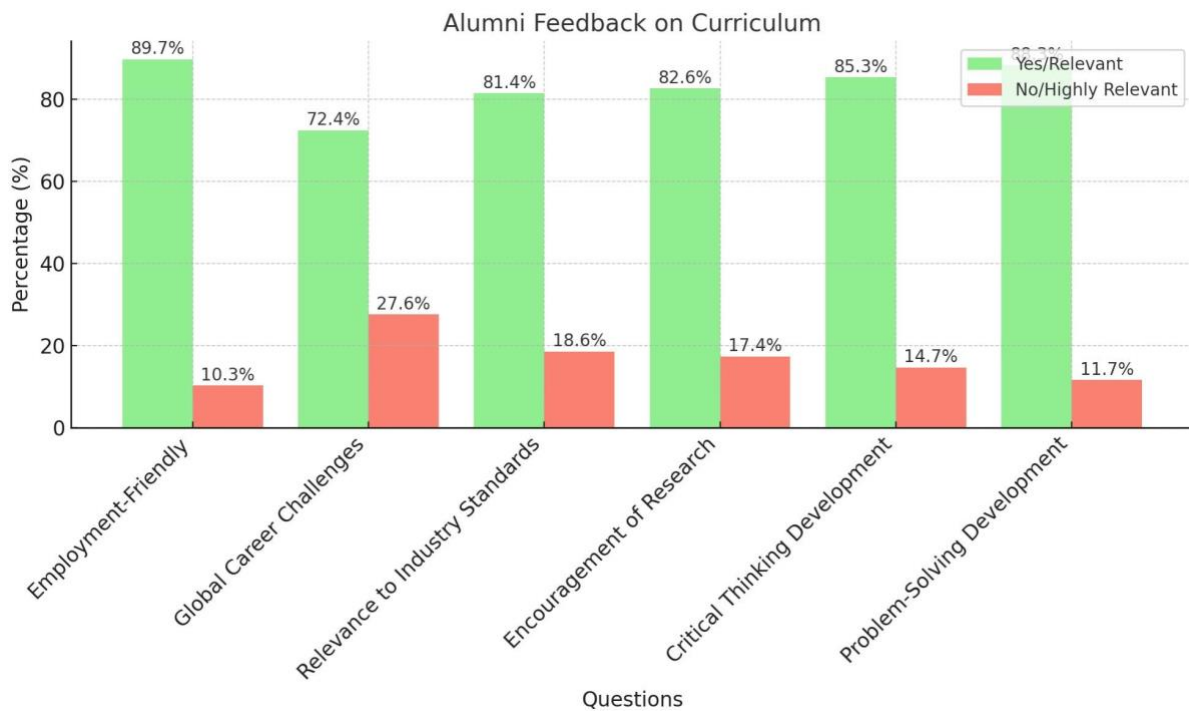

Faculty Feedback on Curriculum:

- Employment-Friendly: 80-90% of faculty members affirmed that the curriculum is designed to be employment-friendly, equipping students with essential skills for the job market.
- Global Career Challenges: A high percentage of faculty (80-90%) agreed that the curriculum effectively addresses global career challenges, preparing students for international opportunities.
- Relevance to Industry Standards & Academic Advancements: 80-90% of faculty rated the curriculum as "relevant" or "highly relevant" to current industry standards and academic advancements.
- Encouragement of Research: A significant portion of faculty members (80-90%) believed that the curriculum actively encourages students to pursue research.
- Development of Critical Thinking & Problem-Solving: The majority of faculty (80-90%) felt that the curriculum promotes critical thinking and problem-solving skills, essential for student success.

Alumni Feedback on Curriculum:

- Employment-Friendly: The majority of alumni (75-90%) believe the curriculum is employment-friendly, providing necessary skills for the job market.
- Global Career Challenges: A strong positive response was received, with alumni affirming that the curriculum is well-suited to meet global career challenges.
- Relevance to Industry Standards & Academic Advancements: 75-90% of alumni found the curriculum either "relevant" or "highly relevant" to current industry standards and academic developments.
- Encouragement of Research: Alumni largely agreed that the curriculum inspires students to engage in research activities.
- Development of Critical Thinking & Problem-Solving: The curriculum was seen as effectively fostering critical thinking and problem-solving skills among students.

Student Feedback on Curriculum:

- Employment-Friendly: 80-90% of students believe the curriculum is employment-friendly, offering skills and knowledge that help them transition smoothly into the workforce.
- Global Career Challenges: A significant majority (80-90%) of students feel the curriculum is designed to meet global career challenges and prepares them for international job opportunities.
- Relevance to Industry Standards & Academic Advancements: 80-90% of students consider the curriculum to be "relevant" or "highly relevant" to current industry standards and academic developments.
- Encouragement of Research: A large portion of students (80-90%) agreed that the curriculum encourages them to engage in research and academic inquiry.
- Development of Critical Thinking & Problem-Solving: The majority of students (80-90%) reported that the curriculum promotes critical thinking and problem-solving skills, which are vital for their academic and professional growth.

